NOTICE

The undermentioned goods which are lying uncleared at the Customs House for more than 4 months will be sold through a public auction to be held from 18th January 1960 onwards at 3 P.M. each day at Custom House Central Revenue Building, Indra Prastha Estate, Harding Bridge, Mathura Road, New Delhi. The goods in question will be opened for inspection on the 13th to 15th January 1960 from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M. each day to the prospective bidders. The general conditions of the auction are as follows—

1. The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right to fix a reserve price of the goods.

2. The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right of selling the goods in smaller lots than those mentioned in the lists.

3. The Customs Collector reserves to himself the right of accepting or rejecting the highest bid without assigning any reason and of withdrawing part or whole of the goods from the auction if necessary.

4. No complaint as to quality and quantity etc. of the goods will be entertained from the buyers after the goods have been auctioned.

5. The successful bidder shall have to pay the total amount of the bid immediately when his bid is accepted by the Customs Collector. If the bid is not deposited the goods will be resolved in any manner which the Customs Collector thinks fit. In the event of their bringing a lower price, the difference shall be made good by the bidder concerned.

6. For bids open for approval not less than 25 per cent of the amount of the bid shall have to be deposited in cash as earnest money by the bidder.

7. In addition to the amount of the bid the successful bidder shall have to pay the local taxes i.e. sale tax etc. if any before he is allowed to remove the goods.

8. The goods sold will be removed by the buyer from the place of storage within the period specified at the time of auction. Deliveries will be made only during working hours and the purchaser will make his own arrangements for transport.
